

Appl. No. 10/016,850
Reply to Office Action of March 24, 2006

Remarks

Applicants are in receipt of the Election of Species requirement in the Office Action mailed March 24, 2006.

Election of Species

Applicants hereby advance the compound of the following structure as their election of a single species from within the genus of compounds disclosed in pending claims 1-12, 14-16 and 24-26.

This compound comprises a pharmaceutical conjugate between brimonidine and memantine.

Applicants understand in making this election, that this compound will be used as the basis for an initial search and examination, and that, upon a determination that this compound is patentable, the remaining non-elected species will be rejoined and examined.
